A QUIET SPACE IN LENT!

I started to write this column about the March 14th Lenten Quiet Day with Professor Bill Countryman. He has been our Lenten speaker on a number of occasions (well, he keeps writing more good books!), but he is also a marvelous teacher and preacher. We are fortunate that he can be with us again.

However as I thought about it, I want to expand my call for "QUIET" to a larger plane than just one morning in March. We have so very many resources to walk with and grow with this Lent.

Lent Madness is fun and educational — even if the voting audience was poor in their judgment. Actually, it was a good match-up. Cuthbert and Bede were two worthies from the relatively same time. I was amazed how the comments favored Bede, but the votes favored Cuthbert.

The Meditations from Episcopal Relief and Development are very inspiring and I need to sit and remember the many ways we can work to make our world a better place. We in the USA and we on the west side of Los Angeles truly breathe "rarified air", in that we are so much more fortunate than many if not most of the people around the world. Reading about the work of ERD, I was moved by the 2/28 reading which tells of the work done in Homs, Syria (part of the Diocese of Jerusalem & the Middle East). People ask, "What are we Anglicans doing to stop ISIS?" We are working as Jesus would have us do.

My late colleague Fr. Malcolm Boyd asked in his landmark book, "Are You Running With Me Jesus?" In the work of the ERD, the Diocese of LA and indeed at St. Bede's, we resoundingly answer that question in the affirmative.

LENT BOOK

Our Lenten study book this year is "The Mystical Way of the Fourth Gospel" by the Rev. Dr. L. William Countryman of CDSP (ret.). It is out of print and is available electronically (pdf) from the church office. Please let us know. We meet each Wednesday after the 7 pm eucharist.
