TODAY we begin a new Church year with the first Sunday of Advent. Each Advent, we begin re-telling the story of Jesus' incarnation & birth, his life & teaching, his death & resurrection. It is our cycle of seasons and is very similar to the earth cycles of spring, summer, fall & winter. Like our earth, our Church year (or liturgical cycle) has representative colors and a variety of pieces which set east season apart from the others.

With Advent, we know that there will be four Sundays (not necessarily four weeks) until Christmas. This year, Christmas Day falls on a Friday, so the Week of Advent 4 is shorter.

In Advent, we hear of John the Baptist and of Mary, the mother of Our Lord. The liturgical color is blue (& rose) which also reminds us of Mary. We light more candles on the Advent wreath each week to prepare us for Christ's coming — the Light of the World.

On Advent 2, the Choir will present its annual Lessons & Carols of Advent which further present the prophecies that point to Jesus. In word, in color, in music — we get into a mind-set of waiting and watching for the Christ to be born — both in the world and also in each of us.

Currently, 53 pledge cards have been returned with 93% of last year's pledged income. We are hoping to increase that for 2016.
