Dear Friends,

Ireland is one of the most fascinating and beautiful islands in the world—only slightly smaller than the State of Maine. In Ireland you're never more than 70 miles from the sea, and usually within sight of one of the 800 lakes and rivers. The 3000-mile coastline rises from white sand covers to some of Europe's most dramatic cliffs. An important feature of this tour will be our visit to ALL of Ireland—both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland, with their contrasting countrysides and villages.

Belfast hosts the world largest Titanic exhibit – Titanic Belfast, on the site of the ship's construction. Although Dublin and Belfast have much to offer with their museums, galleries and other cultural attractions, the truly marvelous sights of Ireland are found outside the big cities. We will visit the pre-historic Navan fort and the primatial city of Armagh. Another highlight is the famous pottery village of Belleek, it's porcelain known for its thinness and slightly iridescent surface.

Natural wonders are as awesome as the Giant's Causeway or as tranquilizing as the Lake of Killarney. We'll hear echoes of "Danny Boy" and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" as we travel past the beauty of the mountains, glens and seascapes.

As we celebrate Ireland, we will worship in several Anglican cathedrals and explore Irish spirituality in daily prayer focusing on Irish "saints." We extend a special invitation to those who have never visited this historic country as well as those who have made repeated visits to join us for a wonderful travel experience.

Don't miss out on this fabulous trip to the Emerald Isle. We know that at this price it will be a sell out! Space is available on a first-come basis. Won't you join us?

Sincerely,

*Bishop Mary Douglas Glasspool
Canon James Newman*
